“ Dear Jeannetta:

There aren't any verbal expressions to alleviate the pain for the loss of your Mother. However, I would like to share that my prayer is that Our Father God, The Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ will bless by strengthening and keeping you and your family in His Loving Care. Please always trust and focus on Him and keep your hands in His Hands.

With God's Blessings,

“ Jeannetta:

I want you to know that I am very sorry for your loss and I am praying for you. I pray that God will carry you in His arms and wrap you in the blanket of His love so close, so warm, so tight that He forms the cushion between you and your pain. I want you to know that God’s heart is very kind, compassionate and He also knows that you are hurting. God is faithful so trust him to carry you.

“ Ms. Milton, while I never had the honor and pleasure to meet you in person, I have had the implicit joy of working with your daughter Jeannetta for the past four years. I am sure that all of the wonderful qualities I have the opportunity to experience working with her on a day to day basis, are no doubt, a reflection of you, her mother, and her upbringing. Thank you for all your gifts. Rest in power and in peace. Deb
