“ My prayers go out to the family members of Elder Abram Ellis. Keith, you are blessed to have the paths in life that have guided you along the way. Stand even when you feel like falling, if you fall, fall to your knees. God will be there holding you and your family members hands. My love to your Mom. Ms. Rosalind Squire

“ Dear Peggy and Family and Friends,
I work with Peggy and only knew Abram through the stories Peggy shared with us. From those stories I could tell he was deeply loved and respected and a rich part of the community. Peggy's description of him seemed to me like a description of herself--full of smiles, brightness, love of God and fellowship, and very giving onto others. Please know that you have my deepest sympathy and prayers in this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Darlene Wade-Evans
