“ My dear sweet cousin Agnes you were the lifeline to me and my family. I remember as a little girl that's when I met you. My mother the late Yvonne Chambers McCoy met your mom Edna when my brother passed Ulysses McCoy, You and my mom received the McCoy name thru marriage. I will surely miss our conversations and I love you so much and what is truly funny is that when I joined the Police Force I received a call for a crime report. When you answered the door I was truly amazed. After I finished my job I told you I will be back, I came back and the history began. I truly new we were related when I saw your doll collection because I collected dolls too. I am going to miss our conversations and I am going to take that advice you gave me, WITH LOVE YVONNE C McCoy AND FAMILY

“ Today and always, may loving memories bring you peace, comfort, and strength. Our deepest sympathy.

Yvonne Campbell - October 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's routine, may you continue to feel comforted by the love and support of family and friends.

Stephanie Wood - October 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Paula and Family, Paula, I was so sorry to find out about the loss of your mother. Though I hadn't seen your Mother in years, her photo is exactly as I remember her. I just wanted you to know, the other McCoy family, are lifting you and the rest of the family up in prayers. Like I said in our talk, if there is something we can do, let us know, and if able we will do with cheerful hearts. Keep your trust in the Creator and he will see you through. His word promises the He will neither leave nor forsake you. Love you..

“ Paula and family:Lord make me an instrument of thy peace Where there is hatred let me sow love Where there is injury, pardon Where there is discord, union Where there is doubt, faith Where there is despair, hope Where there is darkness, light. Oh divine master grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console To be understood as to understand To be loved as to love Where there is despair, hope Where there is sadness, joy For it is in giving that we receive It is in pardoning that we are pardoned And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Love, Ellen, Juanita, and Tikia

“ This just became as real as it can get by seeing this. Grandma, you were a joy to be around. You would straighten us all up in a heart beat!.. and I LOVED IT! You were well respected and a lovable woman. You ALWAYS said you loved me when I left the family gatherings or wherever we were. You always tried to sneak and pay for things for me and the kids and would give me this look bc I never wanted you to. I remember the Mothers Day brunch at my house and seeing you and how much you enjoyed yourself made my day. You'll DEFINITELY be missed, but you'll be joining other family members for sure. I have tears, but tears of joy bc I know Greg, Jeffrey, and Uncle Butch will be happy to see you! I LOVE YOU SO MUCH GRANDMA and you'll FOREVER live in my heart. Another Angel present with the Lord.
