“ I'm so saddened to see that at my own father's funeral for Alfred Clinkscales, Sr. not one person with a drop of his blood was honored by being seated in the two front rows of the church or riding in the limousine. We, your family, were not even introduced. I almost thought it was his wife's funeral because it was only her family sitting in the seats our family should have sat in. Even the obituary was filled with errors in dates and content. What a tragic ending for such an awesome son, brother, father and friend to so many. R.I.P. Dad. I shall always be sure to honor your memory with the truth. Your Only Daughter, Angela M. Clinkscales-Tahi
