

Mr. Alvin Jones, Jr.

September 21, 1956 - January 7, 2025

Alvin Jones, Jr. was the loving son of Alvin Jones Sr. and Fannie Lee York. He was born September 21, 1956, in Washington, District of Columbia. Alvin attended District of Columbia Public Schools. He worked various jobs before finding the match of employment that he really liked and enjoyed at Angelo's Restaurant in Silver Springs, Maryland.

Alvin loved to travel to New York City in his younger days. That was one of his favorite places. He loved his music; he would always have a set of earphones. One of his favorite artists was Whiney Houston, "I'll Always Love You." He loved watching a good Cowboy/Western on television. Alvin was a gentle and soft-spoken person. Always willing to share, lend a hand or do what he could for his family, friends, or anyone else. He had a kind and sweet spirit. He was never someone to sit idle too long, he had a nervous energy. Two of his favorite sayings were when he was ready to leave, "Let's bounce" also "You Got a Couple of Dollars?" If he had coins in his pockets that was still his favorite saying when he saw you. Alvin was a person who made his mark in this world not with grand gestures or fancy titles, but by the basic generosity of his character, by his quality of his involvement with his fellow man, and how he brought out these qualities in others.

He is preceded in death by his parents Alvin Jones Fr., and Fannie lee York. Alvin will be sorely missed by his family. Alvin leaves to cherish his memories three sisters Dianne, Anthonette, Belinda (Mike); one brother Anthony (Eva); three nephews: Derrick, Ronald, Trevon; four nieces Ebony, Antonia (Terance), Jazmin, Shaniya; all of Washington D.C.'s favorite uncle Clinton, aunts, uncle, cousins, great nieces, nephew's, and a host of other relatives and friends. He will be missed.
