“ Mrs. Cook was a spiritual and caring. She was soft spoken, she shared with the needed, not just with money donations, but with visitation with those in hospitals, nursing homes and wherever she felt she could help you through your trials. She was a God fearing woman. Where she felt call, she went. I remember one of her favorite foods was crabs. She go to the annual crab dinner given by the United Methodist Men at 1st United Church in Hyattsville, MD. My deseased husband, Reverend Guy would always invite her and if she could she would attend. He and Mrs. Cook would do visitation to the sick, especially one othe old friends from McDonalds, Mr Al. They we to see Mr. So regularly, the nursing home would to how they we doing. This happened until neither we able go. Now in 2017, God has called to rest. Mrs. Cook, you have answered God's last call to you this Saturday morning , He says "Well done, Anne Alfreda Cook, Thy good and faithful servant! You have been faithful to many, great is your faithfulness.

With sincere sympathy to the Cook family, from Hattie G. Johnson & other family members of the the late Rev. Guy H. Johnson.

“ Hello Alfreda,

We last talked July 30 at my mom's birthday party. You was dad's riding partner. We can't believe that you are gone. You will remain in our hearts forever.

Rest in Heaven,

Kelley and Ernest.
