“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

“ Extending deep and heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of Anthony E. Oats. Death is an enemy says the scriptures (1 Co. 15:26); but everlasting life comes from taking in knowledge of God and his son (John 17:3). May the God of all comfort keep you all under his protective pinions as we look forward to His Kingdom being done on earth.

“ I am sorry for your loss. I pray you will find comfort from the Scriptures such as Job 14:14,15:“If an able-bodied man dies, can he live again? You will call and I myself will answer.” Job had confidence in the resurrection hope and he knew he had to sleep awhile in death, until Jesus called him from the grave; restoring him back to life with the prospect of eternal life on the paradise.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until Jesus calls your love one from the sleep of death, may you continue to find comfort in God's love.-I John 4:8.
