“ My heart was so heavy when I heard the news about my former classmate. Aundre and I were never close but even 10+ years after graduation I remember him and the light he carried. He was always smiling and bringing joy to a room. When I think about it, I'm really tickled at how he could look so put together in his ROTC uniform and then turn around and make it the most unserious things ever. I'm grateful for the small time I had to know him. I'll be holding a special place in my heart for his memory. Sending my sincerest thoughts and prayers to his loved ones, especially his siblings Alena and Greg. Rest peacefully, Aundre.
