To friends and other relatives.....

The Family and Johnson & Jenkins Funeral Home, Inc. appreciate those who will be in attendance virtually for the safety of your health or the consideration of others if you exhibit any of the following:

- Have cared or are caring for someone who has been diagnosed with COVID-19 or has symptoms
- Have been diagnosed with COVID-19
- Have any of the following symptoms, fever, cough, runny nose, or any of the other symptoms updated on the CDC website
- Have traveled inside and/or outside of the United States recently.
- If you are considered at high risk

If you have any problems with the link please contact Mrs. J. Reid @ 202-681-7121

The Family sincerely appreciates your presence during this time of bereavement. Your kind words, prayers, and gifts are felt. Please leave a comment in the comment section to let the family know of your virtual presence.

Disclaimer:

While every effort will be made to ensure the live-stream takes place seamlessly, platform-related interferences can occur that are outside of our control. Though it has been a rare occurrence in our personal experience, it is not unheard of and we take precautions accordingly. In the unfortunate event that the live-stream was to disconnect, a new live-stream will be created immediately to continue coverage of the remainder of the service and a link to the new live-stream will be provided in the comments and description section of the initial live-stream that was disrupted.

“ God saw you getting tired, and he wrapped his arms around you, and whispered “Come to me.” You didn't hesitate to say yes, so he gave you a rest. God's garden must be beautiful for he only takes the best. When I saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain, I could only wish you farewell.
Rest In Peace Until We Meet Again. Veronica

“ Barbara and The Whitaker,
I am sorry to hear about the loss of Bernard.
We go back as far as when Mother Owens brought you and Barbara to church in Baltimore. I thought about how much fun we had at church. My prayers and condolences for you all. Brenda and Ellyott Jackson
