“ When I was young, I moved a lot. I'm not talking cities or even states. I mean countries. Every night I would cry for home, but there was always that sliver of hope, telling me, You can always come back. It will always be there. But even as I returned years later, I always found that the land that I had loved changed. It was not the land I had grown up in, and it never will be again. I have never felt the loss of a person. I could never imagine that degree of loss; the agony, the tears shed. All I can do is try to relate. You can always go back to the person; their footprints forever trapped in that old picture or their remains in a grave. But it will never be the same. All you have are your memories. I hope that you can be with the person that needs you the most, and treasure those memories. That way, you can celebrate the person's life and the person that they used to be. It will mean more than any stupid Hallmark card.

“ You have my sincere sympathy for the passing of your love one. I hope you will find comfort from the Scripture. Jesus likens death to sleep, which His Father in the future will grant him the power of the resurrection(Acts 24:15)to raise all those who are now sleeping in death; restoring them back to life on the renewed paradise earth.- John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Just imagine your sorrow now, being turned into joy, when the resurrection hope is fulfilled and you are reunited with your love one again.-John 11:11-44. Until then, may God continue to comfort and bless your family.-Matthew 5:4.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”
