Carlone Williams Jones

Sunrise 9 October 1941 Sunset 10 August 2025

Carlone passed away peacefully at MedStar Washington Hospital Center, Washington, D.C. on August 10, 2025 at the age of 83. She was Born on October 9th, 1941, at the old Freedmen Hospital, Washington, D.C. (Now Howard University Hospital) to Henry Williams & Sarah Mitchall Williams of Ridge Springs South Carolina.

Carlone was a kind and caring woman, who gave the best hugs and always had time for people. She would welcome you in, put the kettle on and would always engage in a cheerful conversation. You always felt loved after spending time with Carlone.

Carlone attended and graduated from D.C. Public Schools. Her favorite color was red and she was a very talkative person, and love gardening. In 1960 Carlone met Lewis Jones and began dating. In June 1970 the two of them married and enjoyed a marriage of love and support for over 50 years.

Carlone worked for many years caring for new-born babies at Holy Cross Hospital in Silver Spring, MD through the late 60th 70th, and 80th. After retiring in the 90th, Carlone worked part timed for an assisted living home, The Waverly House; until the end of 2015.

Carlone was preceded in death by her son Fredrick, and is survived by her husband Lewis, son Edward Williams, two grandchildren, FredTaye Williams and Honor Camillia Williams; several cousins, other relatives and friends. She will be greatly missed but the love she shared will continue to live on in our memories forever and as is often said, "there's a rainbow to every storm".
