“ Cecilia was one of my mother's best friends. My mother passed away in 1996 at the age of 57, and her name was Margaret Green. Cecilia and my mother were not only friends, but coworkers as well. I absolutely adored Cecilia, and that huge smile of hers. She will be deeply missed, and she always spoke so highly of her daughter, Kelly. She loved her grandchildren and her daughter, and touched a lot of folks lives and all for the better. I just found out about her passing, and am feeling a since of deep loss, but she will be remembered for that smile, and the infectious joy she had and was able to share. She was always a comfort to me during my mom's passing, and I hope that her family is comforted now by the many people who knew and loved her. Sincerely, Sherraine Green
