“ You have my deepest sympathy for the passing of your loved one. I pray you will find comfort in Jesus' promise to raise all those who are now sleeping in death; restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth, where sickness and death will not exist.- John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43; Revelation 21:3,4. Until you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD continue to comfort you during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the passing of your loved one. I pray your family will find comfort in knowing that Mr. Haynes has to sleep just a little while in death,(John 11:11-15) until he is awoken during the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)when Jesus will raise all those sleeping in death, restoring them back to life, with the prospect of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until then, may GOD continue to comfort you, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ To the family of Mr. Haynes:
I wanted to send my condolences to your family. We all have lost loved ones to this enemy death but death will be destroyed according to 1 Corinthians 15:26.
But until that time, please take comfort in knowing that Mr. Haynes is not suffering but is asleep in death waiting to hear Jesus voice. Jesus promised that he will resurrect our loved ones at John 5:28 & 29 which states, " Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming when all those in the graves will come out."
We can see our loved ones again, right here on a cleansed earth but under different conditions (Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29).
Please take comfort in these words until the fulfillment of them.
Love,

“ Madge, these few words are in deepest sympathy to you and your family during your grief for the loss of Mr. Haynes. I am so very sorry for the pain you are feeling right now. Please know that the memories of Mr. Haynes will live in our hearts forever and that with him, we were blessed with one of the finest male role models of our times; especially through his work in the alumni chapters for Winston-Salem State University. May you feel the presence of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as he eases your pain.

“ My sincerest sympathy and condolences are extended to Madge Haynes, and family during your time of loss. I have nothing but fond memories of Mr. Haynes, and his commitment to Winston-Salem State University, its alumni chapters, and the individuals he served with. May God grant you peace and an extra measure of comfort during this time.

Were she able, my grandmother, Mary Roberts, would extend her love and sympathy as well. God bless you!
