

Charles Douglas Williams

May 14, 1961 - May 21, 2018

Charles Douglas Williams, III was born May 14, 1961 to the late Charles D. Williams, Jr. and Desiree L. Williams. God called Charles (Chuck) home on Monday, May 21, 2018.

Chuck was the fourth child of six children. Chuck attended D.C. Public Scholls and was a proud Redskins Fan! Chuck, affectionately called Chuckie, grew up in the Northeast corridor of the District, where he spent many years right here on 14th Street in his grandparents' home, attending Lane in his youth.

Growing up Chuck enjoyed being with his friends and family, attending family functions such as birthday celebrations for his nieces/nephews. Graduation ceremonies and the annual family gathering, etc. During his spare time, he spent countless hours with his Uncle Ralph. He could often be heard saying, "Love you Later" and "What's up, Ace!"

Chuck worked at Georgetown University for over 26 years.

He was a dedicated employee who enjoyed his work and gave his all and all to his job. Often, family and co-workers would hear this proud, native Washingtonian telling stories about "back in the day", Montana Avenue and his beloved hometown. One thing for sure, no matter the subject, Chuck narrated with a smile on his face. We all can learn a lesson from Chuck - unconditional love.

In his passing, he leaves behind his sisters, Adriane Red - Pannell, Dena C. Reed, Charron Williams, Melissa Williams and Jacqueline Johnson; two brothers, Cheldon Williams (Letita) and Adrian Williams (San Juan); two uncles, Ralph Johnson and Hayes Salmond (Ruby); two aunts, Geraldine L. Johnson and Queen Esther Johnson and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
