Call To Glory!

Lady Evangelist Christianah Mopesola Alaba Fafowora, JP

82 yrs

Mom, not sure what to say or how to say it.

Do we say “goodbye” or “goodnight”?

Maybe “see you later” would capture the way God actually designed life for mankind.

But one thing is sure, death is not the language...

“So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.””

I Corinthians 15:54 NKJV

You were a complex weave of amazement of a mother, blending and balancing strength, courage and resilience.

To some, your life was challenging; to us you fought and conquered!

To some, you were just smiles that relied on support from others; to us, you were an intelligent and resourceful STRONG woman!

To some, you waded through the waters of life upstream; to us, you were a woman who God charged with delicate responsibilities while being carried in His arms.

Not many could have won the way you did in life and more so in death. For that reason, we are now convinced that you were always a General in God's agenda.

Sleep well, mom! The battle is over, and like a good General, you completed your charge.

We are comforted, knowing we will meet again in the presence of our Heavenly Father.

You're fondly remembered by all your children.

“ I knew Mummy Sola Fafowora through her late brother Daddy Olujimi Ajjola who was my mentor, adopted Daddy, Uncle & friend. Mummy was very humble & very caring to her family & friends. She was very close to her immediate older brother, Olujimi Ajjola. They were inseparable, I guess she decided to join him not even a year after he passed. Mummy Fafowora will be surely missed. May the Lord comfort the immediate family & the friends she left she left behind. May her gentle soul rest in perfect peace. 🙏
