“ Dear Family,

Clark aka Tony was a wonderful brother-in-law. Clark was a COOL dude who enjoyed family and the fun times that they shared. Let me tell you about his cooking, boy oh boy, could he cook. Taste his food and you would want to slap someone, His food was off the chain. Clark told me that he was going to cook me a pot of greens and that joker got away without doing so. I'm telling you, his food was better than the Country Kitchen. We could call it "Welcome to Clark's Country Kitchen". Let me tell you about his little secret of yardsaling. There was a time when Clark did not want anything to do with the yardsales. But when he noticed how wonderful his house was looking and it only cost a few pennies and a coat of paint, he soon changed his mind. Clark would be the first to rise and ready to leave out for the sales. He would go from one sale to another. He was worst than his wife when it came to yardsale hopping. Clark was a good and wonderful person and I truly enjoyed having him around. But when he became sick, I felt really bad because I could not understand why it had to be another great man facing a terrible illness. But I tell you what, he kept his head up and he faught the fight. Clark was tough and he kept fighting and doing his best to let you know, he was alright. Family, you all stuck by Clark, keeping him happy and helping him to enjoy his life no matter what and you did your very best to show him that he was not in this by himself. Each and everyone of you played an important part of showing love and support to Clark/Tony and I know that he truly appreciated you for doing so. I am going to truly miss his bald head! What a wonderful person and I know GOD is truly proud of him!! Clark was a Good and Faithful Servant and he is resting in the arms of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!!

*Love,
LaVerne*

We know of Tony through his son Demetrius. He was a good father to his son. He is home now with God, his family, loved ones and friends. No more pain just his smile. Love Shelita and Frederick Fair
