“ There are no words to express the feeling. Clyde's big smile and hardy laugh will forever be remembered. He was a brother to us the Daniels' Family. Awwh the memories of the days in Oxon Hill of the family gatherings and the togetherness of community makes me smile. Thanks Clyde for being a valued part of it! I can only say the Lord knows best and it is there where we must rest. From our Family to the Thompson's Much love to each of you!!!!

“ My sincerest sympathy goes out to the friends and family. Losing a loved one is such a difficult thing to deal with. We can find comfort in such scriptures as John 5:28,29 the promise Jesus gave of resurrecting our loved ones back to life. Until that day comes, we have the promise that God will draw close to those whose hearts have been broken (Psalms 34:18)

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one; please accept my deepest sympathy. While you are grieving, I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the earthly resurrection, for those who have fallen asleep in death (Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the loss of a loved one.- Isaiah 25:8; John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that GOD cares (I Peter 5:7) and will give you the strength to endure during this grievous time.- Matthew 5:4.
