“ Our hearts and minds are there with you even though we are not there in form. The calls of death are always for the best for we are solving problems there as well as here; Just let her noble life be strength and inspiration unto you. But she was not called hence until her tasks were done....T. Mitchell-Bey and family

“ I know its real but its hard to believe, I will miss all our calls texts our crazy times filled with laughter even with being pregnant at the same time with our first sons being born (1969) two days apart. We even have the same middle name.💔💔💔💔 Rest In Heaven!
