“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29

“ God has called another one of his soldiers home to be with him. There is no more pain to bear. God will give you the strength to carry on and to know your loveone will always be in your hearts. I will always remember the great feast we shared the christmas I came up to visit with Keith and Shelley. May God continue to bless and keep the family in his care. Dorothy

“ I will always remember the times I shared with you. You have known me since I was a little girl and I can remember being the flower girl in your wedding. I'm going to miss you so much but I know you are resting peacefully in God's arm. We will see each other again. Love you, Dan

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible gives hope that soon our Creator Jehovah God will end all suffering, pain, and death. And we have the hope of being reunited with our loved ones that have passed away. Rev 21:4, John 5:28-29. There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up to indefinitely everlasting life.
