“ Your beautiful smile, laughter, energy, and the love and caregiving that you provided to so many people from your heart can never be forgotten. You touched many families lives and loved ones and you had no issue asking questions when warranted and seeking answers. If you did not get the answer you felt was right or made sense, you would take it to the next level. Caregiving and providing is not an easy task but you were a person who enjoyed people and it was not about the money in a number of cases. It was because you cared, loved and it came from the heart.

I'm going to miss our many conversations but you are in a better place being looked over and cared for -- like you cared for others during your life. Gonna truly miss you .
