

Della Green

September 5, 1924 - June 5, 2019

Della Ann Green

Sunrise 9/ 5/1924 Sunset 6/5/2019

Della lived to be 94 years old.

She was born to the late Wright H Price and Mary T Price.

Della had 8 siblings 2 brothers and 6 sisters.

Della lived most of her life in Washington DC.

Della always made you feel welcome.

Della enjoyed talking about current events.

Della would always ask “what are you doing in life are you saving anything”.

Most of all she talked about being a school teacher.

She received her Bachelor’s degree in education from Miner Teachers College located in Washington, D.C.

Della taught school at Kelly Miller and Shaw Junior High.

Della was a writer for The Baltimore, Afro-American newspaper, where she received various awards.

She was married to Adolphus Meachum and later to Spaulden E Green.

Della retired from teaching school and moved to New York and there she became a Social Worker.

Upon retiring from Social Work Della moved to New Carrollton Maryland where she and her late husband, Spaulden purchased a home.

After her husband's death and in her later years Della became ill.

During the early stages of her illness Della was well taken care of by her late nephew

Thomas Workeman, Louise Johnson (niece) and (nephew) Raymond Workeman.

No longer able to live independently she was placed into an assisted living facility where she received assistance with her daily care. Later on in Della's final 2 years she received hospice comfort care.

Our Aunt Della lived a very comfortable life.

Della leaves behind several cousins and a host of nieces and nephews
