

Earl T Dixon

March 9, 1926 - October 24, 2018

On the evening of Wednesday, October 24, 2018 an angel of God came into the room and saw that Earl was tired and winged his soul from this world of sin to a place of eternal rest.

Earl Theodore Dixon, affectionately known as “Bartender” was born March 9, 1926 to the late Mae Pearl and Veola Dixon in New Jersey. The family later relocated to King George County, Virginia where Earl received his education.

After graduation Earl joined the United States Army in 1944. Where he served as a Medical Technician during the World War II. Earl, accepted Christ as his personal savior at an early age and was baptized at Little Ark Baptist Church, King George County Virginia. Earl later joined Exodus Missionary Baptist Church where he was an active member until his health started to fail.

Earl, moved to Washington DC where he married Catherine Dempsey Dixon on September 19, 1953; to this union one daughter Wanda Regina was born.

Earl was employed at Walter Reed Army Medical Center where he later retired. Earl enjoyed cooking, gardening, telling jokes and enjoying his family and his life.

He leaves to cherish his memory; His wife of 65 years Catherine, his daughter

Wanda Dixon and one grandson Carlton Steward. A host of cousins, nieces, nephews' relatives and friends.
