Pan Earth

January 9, 1941-January 27, 2019

Pan Earth (Thomas Lee Echols) was born January 9, 1941 in St. Louis, Missouri to Ida Mae Hendon Echols and Henry Emerson Echols.

Pan attended Hadley Technical High School in St. Louis and was always a bright, creative, and intelligent individual.

He loved sports, music, travel (including a trip to the African Motherland), talking, politics, and reading. He was a proud veteran of the United States Air Force.

Anyone who knew Pan, quickly realized what a unique and special person he was. He was a strong and determined man who always spoke his mind.

He was a loving father, brother, uncle and friend and will truly be missed.

He came from a large loving family. His brothers and sisters Marvin Echols, Eddie Echols, Mattie Hughley, and Ida Merritt, preceded him in transition. Sisters, Mary Hargrove and Willie Ella Price, brothers Henry Echols, Alton Echols and Melvin Echols, son Olumide, and Olumide's mother, Cynthia

Turner, survive him. Many loving cousins, nieces, nephews and friends who all share the joys of knowing this special man also survive him.

“Family Reunion”

A theme and song that meant a lot to him.
