

Edward Jerome Collins

March 9, 1951 - October 24, 2015

Edward Jerome Collins 64, was born March 09, 1951, and passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 24, 2015. He was born in Kississimme, Florida, to the late John E. Collins, Sr. and Lillie Rose Collins. He is also predeceased by his brother, Manitee Collins. Left to cherish his memory is his 2 brothers, John E. Collins,(Beverly) and Dale Collins, (Danielle), his 2 children, Tamara Harrell, (daughter) and Edward Jerome Harrell, (son), 5 grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, uncles and aunts, and friends and his life partner, Eunice Trammell.

He was an exceptional cook who found immense joy in teaching others his craft...an all-around guy with an "It is what it is attitude" who enjoyed dancing and socializing. He was a person who knew no strangers...everyone was a potential friend. He had a way of making everyone comfortable around him, and making them feel that everything was going to be alright... regardless of the situation. We will truly miss his wonderful smile, and his fun loving personality.

He attended Florida public schools, after High School He Entered the Job Corp and The U.S. Army.

He worked at Fort Myer Coustruction and Washington Air Compressor Compand in the Washington METRO area.

A Viewing and funeral service will be held at Johnson and Jenkins Funeral Home, Inc. located 716 Kennedy Street NW, Washington, DC 20011 on Saturday, October 31, 2015. The viewing will begin 10:00 to 11:00 a.m., the funeral service will commence directly after.

A private Interment service will be held at a later date, family only.

The family would like to extend a special Thank You, for all of the gifts and expressions of love.

Arrangements by Johnson and Jenkins Funeral Home, Inc..
