“ You took good care of everybody Mrs. Lincoln and I am proud to have known you. I loved our little chats. There's a special place in heaven for you. Diane Hewlett Steele.

“ I am sick with sadness. The woman who gave up time with her own family to work for mine, making it possible for my mother to work, is gone. Elise Lincoln was the purest soul I have ever met. Through her love, I found the love of a God that sustains me now -- every second of every day -- through this loss and the joyful memories that will remain with me all my life. Thank you, Magrissa, for sharing your greatest blessing with us.
