“ To the Cooper Family, Liz (Elizabeth) was a true friend of mine for many years as you all know. What a beautiful woman of God. It's hard to believe that she is no longer with us, however, may she rest in peace with Jesus. We will always keep her in our mind and in our heart.

“ Dear Lin and Lawrence, I'm so sorry for your loss, but may it comfort you to know that when God calls his children home, he leads them into a place of love, light, peace and everlasting joy and eternal life with him. I pray that all the love and wonderful memories of Liz will comfort you. Know that you are never alone. Remember that God makes no mistakes and he will never leave you. Love and Sympathy, Aunt Anna

“ Linn and Lawrence, My sympathies are with your during your time of grief. I pray that you find joy in knowing that your mother has found eternal peace, comfort and everlasting life with the Lord. Please know that she has not left you but simply moved on to a better place to prepare for the day when we will all meet again. Until then, she will be by your side, watching and protecting you as always. I love you both always. Your sister, Shanese and family

“ I had the privilege of working with Liz at the NIDA. She was a wonderful person with a joyful heart and loved her family dearly. Just know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. May God continue to watch over her family and give them strength during their time of sorrow.
