“ Never met him or did my husband but he became a mentor for my husband over the phone whenever he needed a real estate couch...they had plans on meeting up one day... May the Johnson's family find comfort and refuge through prayer and the bible during this difficult time... Elliotts

“ Elroy, you will be missed. We had great times together, you were once my best friend. You are gone but never forgotten. I still have and always will have the best part of you, our children. May your soul forever rest in eternal peace.

“ Elroy -- My Man, You will be missed. We would talk often about family and friends, that our time here is short so if you have a beef with someone - fix it - have not spoken to someone is a while - pick up the phone and when you do see them give them a hug from Elroy, he'd like that.

I have faith that I will see you again my friend....."Ya Dig"

“ I first met Elroy some 20 years ago when he worked for a different dealership in the Ourisman Automotive group. I was so impressed with his demeanor, his work ethic and his uncanny ability to make almost anyone smile, that I spent the next 10 years trying to hire him to work with me at Ourisman Honda. Ten years ago he finally came over and immediately became an asset to our organization. He will truly be missed and will never be forgotten.
