“ I would like to express my sincere sympathy to the family during your time of sorrow. Please keep in mind the comfort that God offers when we face any kind of distress. Also, he is a refuge and strength for us, a help that is readily to be found during difficult times (Psalm 46:1). As you endure the days ahead, may God give you peace and comfort.

“ I’m so thankful for God (Yeshua) for blessing me with the opportunity to meet Mama Elsie. I really enjoyed our numerous conversations, her compassion, her honesty, her laughter’s and her as a person. Although, her spirit is no longer on earth with us today; however, the memories of her are in our hearts.

I prayed and prayed to God that He would bless her by healing her spiritually and physically so she can spend more time with her on this planet. I know God will is going to be done on earth as it is in heaven (Matthew 6:10); that said I know that God is in control (Jeremiah 10:6 - 10:10). Mama is with our Lord and Savior Yeshua (Jesus the Christ) and there is no pain being in the presence of God, only shalom (peace). Our Lord and Savior Yeshua (Jesus the Christ) was on the cross and is off the cross. By His blood, I honestly can say that she is alive in Yeshua (one death but 2 lives) according to John 3:1-21, 2 Corinthians 5:1-3, Rom 7:20-25, Php 3:20-21, and 1 Corinthians 15:51-53. Mama Elsie is more than a mother; she was a kind hearted lady who cares for others, embraced strangers into her family as her own child. I know she is a child of God the one and only true God who is King of the universe. I love you Mama, Antonio
