“ Eric always made everyone's day a bit brighter. Always positive, always smiling. He was a great part of a great EPA team. His EPA family will miss him dearly. We are all better for having him as a colleague and more importantly a friend and mentor.

“ Gina, my sincere condolences. I have many great memories of the six years that Eric and I worked together at ICF. He had a great sense of humor and we sure shared a lot of laughs during that time. I will miss him greatly and so will all our colleagues from ICF that I still keep in touch with.

“ Dear Reynolds Family
My family & I would like to express our sincere condolences to you. Just several weeks ago I was wondering how Eric was doing. Jesus hears the prayers of your heart just as clearly as He hears the prayers others are lifting up for you. So for as long as you grieve, may it be a comfort to remember this: The more you need Him, the closer He will be.

“ My name is Wilbert Bell. My nickname in childhood was Skelly. Eric and I were very close in high school. I have not seen or spoken to him since the year we graduated but, the good times we spent together were priceless. To all his family that I never knew, I know Eric was a great father, husband, etc because of the kind of person he was. To his mother, Sporty (David) and his sisters, you have all my thoughts, prayers for just an emotional lost. Sympathy? I will not give that. The Eric I knew was always smiling, cheerful. I am sure he would like his life "celebrated" and not mourned. I will forever be sad that I never got the chance to talk to him again. However, all of us have another "tour" after life on earth. God Bless his entire Family.

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3-4, John 5:28,29). Again I am extending my sincere condolences to the family.
