“ So very true David. My brother died reitnecy and they had a minute silence at his work place and so many people turned up at his funeral to pay their respects. I felt blessed that I often told John how I felt although I didn't always understand how he lived I loved him dearly and I know he loved me. I also did not judge the people who came along as I know they were touched by his presence. He is at peace now. Thanks for the space to share this with much love and light alwaysx

“ Dear Dr. E & Family,
I am very sorry for your loss. May the God of our Salvation, our comforter, and provider, bear you up right now. God is gracious and merciful and he sees your suffering. May God give you the strength to get through each day and may he lay his hands upon your entire family and just hold you during this storm. Dear God, only you know what this family needs. Merciful Father touch this family and strengthen and comfort there minds and their spirits. Heal their broken hearts. Only you Father can do it. Bring healing and peace to this family. In the name of Jesus, please bring family home safely. We know father that all things are possible through you. Thank you Gracious Father because we know that your compassion is on those who mourn. Touch this family. We thank you for the prayers and words of encouragement that have gone up before. In Jesus name, Amen.

“ She was always worrying about her children and others and how to solve their problems.

Now, all that is over, no more worries or cares, only walking on streets of gold, looking in the face of JESUS day by day.

Her memories linger like a beautiful fragrance with their sweet aroma of goodness, kindness and love. The echo of the phrase "don't trouble trouble" resounds in my mind and will forever be linked with my memories of her.

“ I had a conversation with a Bishop this morning regarding Mama Erma. I told him I had no doubt that she is in heaven. She is singing with the angels and waiting for others to join in the beautiful choir. Gone from this mortal earth but residing forever in our eternal home. Praise Jesus.

“ Moms - Thank you for all the times that we spent together. The talks, the long 16 hour drive to Florida, the shopping, the advise among so many other things. I will miss you. It's amazing how our lives were linked together with my parents even before I was born. You will be forever in our hearts. The Brady Family.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. I pray you will find comfort in knowing that death is not the end of things; Jesus promise the resurrection(Acts 24:15)of all those now sleeping in death(John 11:11-15)when he will raise them from the graves; restoring them back to life with the hope of eternal life on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that promise unfolds and you are reunited with Miss Erma, may God continue to grant you peace and comfort during this time of sadness.-Matthew 5:4; John 15:33.

“ Our condolences to family. Truly mother Walsh was a generous, unique gem and we do take comfort to know she is in a better place. May your hearts be lifted up. Cry if you must, weep if you may only the Lord understand these tears, they are not tears of sorrows but of joy.
