“ My condolences for your loss. May you find comfort, from family, friends and the God of all comfort. "He is giving support to all who are falling and is raising up all who are bowed down" Psalm 145:14 He will sustain you until that day that he will swallow up death forever.

“ From arts and crafts ,to pressing hair,to you and Aunt Maggie saving my life as I choked on a piece of cereal,to putting puzzles,to listening to Canton Spirituals ,to fixing collard greens."I thought every Sunday was a holiday to be celebrated with good cooking", I would brag to my friends as I were younger.Those are just a few experiences that standout to me. But most important is your RESILIENCE and DETERMINATION. There is not enough space nor words that can begin to express the profound love I have for my grandmother. You have been around for all of my life so it seems unreal that I am only left with memories.I thank you for the impact you made in my life and my sons life. You've taught me to appreciate the simple uncomplicated things in life. I love you!

“ To start off I know you heard me as Uncle Roosevelt and Uncle Almond began to speak. I felt I had to scream to let everyone know how great you are. Even during days you seemed to tired or a little under the weather, you took the time to read and practice animal sounds with me. I will miss your two sayings "Where's Brayden" and "Winnie where's Winnie" I will forever love you, I am thankful for the wonderful times we shared together

“ When I came home from school last week, I found out my Aunt Betty had left us and gone to heaven. I cried because I didn't have a chance to tell her goodbye, but my Pa-pa told me I will see her again one day. She helped Grandma Maggie take care of me, played with me every day after school, and gave me lots of hugs and kisses. I love and miss Aunt Betty very much.

“ Ethel will always lovingly be remembered as Betty Sue to me. I will forever cherish the memories of my childhood growing up and being watched over by one of my big sisters (I did'nt have any older brothers or sisters). Family you are in the hearts and prayers of the children of her Uncle Jesse (Frog) Brown (Dean, Junior, Carl, Selma, Brenda and Bonnie). God Bless!
