“ Larry you have our deepest sympathy. Although we have lost touch over the years we still remember the backyard BBQ's, crab feast, and bouts with the schnauzers (Pepe and Casper). We lost our son Alan in November 2011, so along with Alan and our family, you and Ann will always be in our prayers. God Bless. Wayne Sr., Laurie and Morgyn Hill.

“ Don't be dismayed at good-byes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. The Bible reminds us that "Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted." I pray that God will give you the strength to see you through this sad and difficult time. My thoughts and prayers will be with you all.

“ I can't imagine the sadness you must be feeling from the loss of your wife.

It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. May God bless you and keep you in his care, now and in the days to come.

“ This has been very difficult on my family hearing about the loss of Ms. Ann.

I want everyone to know Ms. Ann was my mother's neighbor and friend. I knew Ms. Ann when I was a teenager and now as a woman.

Ms. Ann was the kindest woman I have known. I never heard her say an unkind, harsh, or coarse word towards, or about anyone in my presence.

She exemplified a virtuous woman. Always working in her home (which was beautiful). Kept an impeccable yard, and ALWAYS had a smile on her face. She loved her husband Mr. Larry and her little dog.

Very friendly, loving, and, always happy to see you coming.

Encouraging and very helpful.

I will always remember her soft spoken kind words, gentle touch, an Godly speech. To Mr. Larry, you're a very kind man, and I want you to know Ms. Ann truly loved you. I saw it as a teen and witnessed her love for you, and towards you, when became a woman.

Mr. Larry, you were very blessed, to have had one of Jesus Christ finest sent, to you from heaven above.

Know with assurance Ms. Ann is rejoicing with the Father (Jesus Christ).

From a teenager, now a woman, I want everyone to know Ms. Ann represented Jesus Christ in front of a child- who has grown into a woman-- who bears witness, she was a virtuous, God fearing, beautiful, wonderful woman.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29
