“ I am Billie Dean Cooks Mims, the sister of Fannie. I am younger than Fannie, but we all grew up together as part of a second group of six children who were 2 year apart in ages. There were another groups of six children in the family who were two years apart in ages that were older and leaving the house when we became of age to remember them. There was a five year gap between these two groups. The total number of children were 12 and of the 12 only three girls are alive today. We live and lived in California, Illinois, Georgia, Washington DC, and Iowa. We kept in touch by mail, telephone calling and now Snap Chat and Zooming. We planned our vacations around family visits. We provided love and support through hard times and celebrated accomplishments. We would do memory walks, a lot, as we progressed in age Fannie was a part of a large loving Christian family. We loved her even though we were miles apart. She was and is still, in our hearts and prayers. To her son and grandchildren, she will always be with you in your memories and looking at yourself in the mirror, you'll see her smiling back at you. God bless and keep you!
