“ To the family of the late Fatmata Oki, you have my deepest sympathy. Fatmata was indeed a wonderful lady and a true asset to us all. She will be missed but her spirit and memory will live on. To Bro. Oki and the entire family, remember that God never makes a mistake and he is right their to comfort you. Trust, lean and depend on him now and in the days and months ahead. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come in the morning. God love you and he will take care of you. My prayers are with you today and always. Much Love!
