“ Geri, not a day goes by that I do not miss you. I enjoyed our early dinners at Olive Garden, our visits to the CVS, and our talks about family, friends, and religion. Just now, I installed the patio umbrella you made years ago but gave to me. Thank you neighbor for your friendship and life advice. Prayers of peace and faithfulness to your family and friends. Love, Cynde Thomas

“ Last Friday I received the sad news of the passing of Geraldine from a neighbor. Years ago, her husband Louie would walk their dog and we would exchange greetings whenever I was working in my front yard. He learned that I was on the faculty of Howard U and said his wife also worked there although I did not know her. Louie eventually introduced me to Gerri. We became good friends and even discovered that we had some mutual friends. Gerri was a lovely kind caring person. She was grounded in her faith and we would attend some church functions. She was most proud of her son Wayne and over the moon when the grandchildren were born. For some time I have miss our time together. I have fond memories of our friendship and the lovely dinners at her home. My sincere condolences to the family. Gerri, God bless your soul. You have spread your wings and taken flight to heaven. Rest in power and peace. Happy heavenly Mother's Day. Marian Williams
