“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Gwen's family. May God continue to strengthen you through these tough times.

I met Gwen in 2006 while looking for a travel agent for my honeymoon. My sister Theresa informed me that we had a cousin who had her own business as a travel agent. Gwen put our cruise together which was wonderful, and gave us a gift which I wasn't expecting. She was very pleasant, always cheerful and had the biggest smile. She always sent me emails regarding trips. Gwen will truly be missed but, always in our hearts and never forgotten.

“ I am sorry for your loss; please accept my deepest sympathy. We all look forward to the future when Jehovah God will put an end to death forever(Isaiah 25:8)and when all those who are now sleeping in death, raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43.

“ To Lovie, Lonnie, Davy & Jamie: You probably don't remember me, but I'm your 1st cousin in Virginia. I knew Gwendolyn as (Sissy). All these yrs I never knew her first name. Always remember the wonderful times you shared together. My husband & I send our condolences to you & your family. Be strong & God will take care of the rest.
