“ I hope your family will find comfort in Jesus' words:” Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”(John 5:28,29) So for a little while, your love one will have to sleep in death, before Jesus awaken them during the earthly resurrection; restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth..-John 11:11-44; Luke 23:43. May God continue to comfort and bless your family, during this grievous time.- Isaiah 66:13.

“ To the Williams family,
Please accept my deepest condolences in your loss of such a great individual in Howard. He was a great colleague, and I will miss his smile, kindness, and consideration. He loved his family and friends, and his spirit will continue to watch over you. I wish I could be with you to show my support but I am out of town. However, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all. May the Lord bless, protect, and support you and your family during this time.
Blessings, J.P. Kim

“ Dear Williams family,
I was so sorry to hear about the loss of Howard. He was a friend and co-worker of mine at the NIH. I will always remember Howard as a kind and friendly man. Howard was a dedicated employee and he worked hard to satisfy our equipment needs while always having a smile on his face. I enjoyed his company and our many conversations about family and vacations. He spoke so highly about his wife, daughters and grandchildren. I hope the fond memories you have of Howard will help to ease your sorrow.
Sincerely,
Kathy Hancock NIH

“ I would like to offer the Williams family my sincere condolences. Howard was such a wonderful person. He made my day while working in OER. Although his health was declining he still maintained an upbeat spirit. I use to copy Anthony Hamilton CDs so that he was current. He will be truly missed.
