

Iman Jackson

June 8, 1978 - September 5, 2020

Iman Jasmine Jackson was born June 8, 1978 to Fred and LaTonya Broome Jackson (AKA Toni). From the beginning, she was a beautiful baby and a gift to a grandmother and to an aunt and uncle who had not had a new baby in the family for many years.

She grew up in Northwest DC in the Bloomingdale and LeDroit Park neighborhoods. Much of her time was spent at the family home of her Grandmother (Mama Neni), Aunt Lou, and Uncle Junior. They adored her and she loved them very much. She continued to mourn the loss of her Uncle who passed away last year.

Iman excelled as a student in the DC Public Schools system. She attended Park View Elementary School, where she graduated as class Salutatorian. Her talent for theatre and the performing arts was revealed when she played the lead in “Cindy Mae Ella”, an afro-centric take on the Cinderella story. She went on to graduate from Alice Deal Junior High School and Woodrow Wilson Senior High School.

During her teen years, Iman was a member of the DC Youth Ensemble “DCYE”, a remarkable performance organization, directed by Carol Foster. This organization nurtured some of the best young performers in the Washington Metropolitan Area. DCYE not only embraced a sense of cultural awareness, but also instilled discipline in the pursuit of excellence in the art of dance.

Iman pursued higher education at Lincoln University and Bowie State University for two years. She continued her quest for learning and improving her professional skills by attending classes at Trinity Washington University and taking online classes at the Art Institute of Pittsburgh.

Iman was a true advocate for integrity in the real estate field. She began her real estate career in 1998 and quickly transitioned to Sales Manager for Marlboro Ridge, Prince Georges County's first equine community of 998 homes. She went on to work in association management. As a Portfolio Manager she was responsible for budgets, contracts, maintenance and interface with boards of directors for multiple properties.

Iman was an active member of the Community Associations Institute, serving on the Quorum and Maryland Legislative Committees of the Washington Metro Chapter, as well as a contributor to its Quorum Magazine. She was a member of the XYZ Committee for Associated Builders and Contractors of Metro Washington and a Notary Public for Maryland and Virginia. She held the Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA) and the Association Manager Specialist (AMS) designations granted by the Community Associations Institute.

Iman loved the DC music and restaurant scene, and was always up for a Wizards or Nationals game. She was excited to have the opportunity to attend the Kentucky Derby with friends. She looked forward to our family trips to Ocean City, Md, our over-the-top fireworks on the 4th of July, and our crab feast cookouts at Uncle Junior's home in Calvert County.

She practiced Bikram Yoga and was an avid gardener, legendary baker, and talented writer. Above all of these achievements, her proudest was being the mother of her son Anthony, who is now completing his final year as a film major at The Philadelphia University of the Arts.

In addition to her son Anthony, she leaves to cherish her love and memory, her mother and father; two brothers, Aaron Jackson and Richard Scales; sister Chiqwita Arnold Garnes; three aunts, Deborah Taylor, Sharon Mitchell, and Michele Lyons of Ohio; Godmother Lorraine Fauntleroy and family; and cousins of the Russell, Jackson, Smallwood and Whittington families, and numerous friends and colleagues.

“ I am greatly saddened to hear of Iman's passing and apologize for not hearing the news until today. We worked together at FirstService Residential and volunteered on many WMCCAI committees and events over the years. I always appreciated her professionalism, ready smile, and positive light. I am so very sorry for your loss.

Best Regards,

Bernie Guthrie

“ It has taken a lot for me to say anything about the void we are left with since our beautiful Iman has transitioned. She was an amazingly warm light that will never grow dim. An integral part of the DC Youth Ensemble, she was a dedicated and hard-working student. She had a quiet calm and tremendous power. As in anything that happens only God knows our beginning and end. She has finished her work in this realm and has now moved on. I urge all of us to follow her lead in being happy and loving one another for that's all we have. We (I) will miss you and your beauty but I know you are still here for all of us whenever we need you. "Ain't No Way" you're ever going to leave us!

“ The parents of David Thurston loved watching you dance in DC Youth Ensemble programs. I still remember the feeling of "Sisters." You were a sparkling personality. I can't believe you are gone so soon. Thank you for being a friend for so long to our son, David.

Our love to your parents. I understand that you are leaving young children. May they be inspired by the love you will send into their hearts all of their lives.

We are shocked and so sorry,
