“ I remember when you would say "Dee how's Moricka doing? Tell her to hurry up back."
I remember when you would say "Dee what time is it? It's 4 o'clock? time to go, lol."
I remember when you would say "Dee, I'm so glad to see you. I need you to look at this paper for me. These people tripping."
I remember when you would dance down the hall past the kitchen heading back to your classroom. Especially when you were excited about something.
I remember when you would say "Dee, give me some of that food. It smells so good."
I remember when you would say "Dee my friend coming here on my lunch break and he selling some bad stuff. lol."
I remember when you would crack jokes to make us laugh.
I remember watching you move smoothly on the dance floor. I loved to see you hand dance with your brother.
I remember you laughing, smiling, and just enjoying life. Just doing you.
Jackie, it was a pleasure knowing you, working with you, and enjoying some great times with you. And all of the above is how I choose to remember you. May your soar with the Angels and your spirit Rest in Heavenly Peace.
