

James L Anthony

December 28, 1977 - January 21, 2017

On January 21, 2017 James Anthony was called to rest.

James Louis (“Lou Lou”) Anthony was born on December 28th, 1977 in Washington, DC to the late Betty Gleaton, and James Anthony Sr.

Lou Lou attended DC public schools. He was a loving person with a free spirit. He loved to sing, and write poems.

Lou Lou was preceded in death by his mother, and father, Betty Gleaton and James Anthony Sr. His little brother Lamont Anthony, two aunts, Mae Frances Glasgow and Dorothy Mayo, three uncles, James, Thomas, and Charles Gleaton.

Lou Lou leaves to cherish his memories, one daughter Nala Johnson, three sisters, Charlene Waldo, Delores Waldo, and Yolanda Anthony. Four Aunts, Barbara Jean Gleaton, Ruth Ann Gleaton, Allean McQueen, And Rose Palyer. Two Uncles, Rivers Gleaton, and Theodore Gleaton, All of Washington, DC Four nieces, Shannon Greene, Andrea Waldo, Kriston Robinson, and, Laquanda Anthony. Two nephews, Tony Waldo, and Christopher Robinson. Two great-aunts, Albertha Carmicheal, and Evelyn Smith. Two great-uncles Wilbert, Nathan Fanning, both of South Carolina. And a host of other relatives and friends.

Lou Lou was full of joy and laughter, and we are assured that he has found peace at the end of his journey. He holds a special place in our hearts. May he rest in the arms of our heavenly Father.

My Brother

I think of you in silence,
And make no outward show,
But what it meant to lose
you no one will ever know.
You gave no one a last farewell
Or even a "Good-Bye"
You were gone before I knew
And only God knows why
A golden heart stopped beating
Your tender hands are at rest
God broke my hearts to prove to me
He only takes the best!!!

Forever your sister,
Charlene "Nene Nene"

Dear Brother Your Memory Will Never Fade
My dear brother now that you are gone
You're no longer here to share
The bond that we had together
A bond of love and care.
Yet, some how something tells me
You are watching over me
Now that from Worldly cares
You are finally free

I miss you so very much,
And my tears I cannot hide
Yet within my heart, I feel
You are always by my side.
Ever since you went away
Life has never been the same
Yet, it comforts me to know
That one day we'll meet again.
If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Brother's arms
And tell him they're from me.
Tell him I love him and miss him,
And when he turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon his cheek,
and hold him for awhile.
Because remembering him is easy,
I do it every day,
But there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Forever your sister,
Delores "Buffalo"

My Brother

Before God called you home, we shared secrets, tears, trials and laughs.
We also shared the same mom and dad
We shared lots of good times so I hope you didn't think of the bad
I'm glad you were my brother

I'm glad you were my friend.

Forever your sister,

Yolanda "Boo"

Broken Chain

We didn't know that morning that God was going to call your name

In life we loved you Lou Lou and in death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone;

The day God called you home, you left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide;

And though we cannot see you anymore, you are always by our side

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;

But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

We love you

Lou Lou,

The Family
