“ Mr. Jim Jim, Memories last forever. We love you and miss you already. You were a father to me, so selfless. You were a grandfather to my son, so kind. All the memories, countless.

I recall the day you drove to Richmond to help me move. You worked hard with no complaints. You showed me complete love and support for my move home.

When I moved to Georgia you visited each of my homes, several times. Irish Cream for your coffee... I got you. Christmas time, you want to watch your Western's from the comfort of my living room, I got you.

We are flying in from Georgia to Virginia in the middle of the night... you got us.

It's spring break or summer time and the baby, as you say... Marc wants to come home to Virginia... you got him. You molded my baby. You took him to the barber shop for his haircuts. You taught him how to cut grass on a riding mower. You gave him permission to walk the dogs (Buck and Scrappy), teaching him how to follow rules.

And the laughs... Marcus at your house riding the bicycle in his underwear after the football game. What about when you discovered the 6 year old little boy could eat a 12 inch sub? Such sweet days.

Mr. Jim Jim... these are just a few of the moments we had as a family. You are always in our heart and You will forever be cherished. We love you.
