“ You being gone doesn't feel real and I don't want it to be. I will always remember starting at Wayward Kind with you and learning so much from you. You're the coolest person I've ever met and the coolest person I'll ever know. I am so lucky to have met you, befriended you, and learned from you. I will miss you so much, Jaz. Until we meet again my friend.

“ My first memory of you was in the halls of Kenmoor Middle. You were the loudest, funniest & flyest person I knew (with a smart mouth lol). My favorite memory was flying out to SD back in 2018 and we hung out & it's like we picked up where we left off. The memory I'll Always have of you is your great energy. I'll truly miss that and will hold all of our memories to my heart! Thank you for always being a friend to me.

“ To know you was to love you! You brightened every room you were in. You were taken way to soon, but God doesn't make mistakes, he must have bigger plans. Plans we just can't fathom! I am so thankful to have known you and watched you grown into the phenomenal woman you were! God bless the family during this time. My prayers continue 🍀🍀🍀

I remember first meeting you in Philly back in 2010. Both of us were working at H&M on Chestnut and you saw my yeezys on my feet and tried to buy them off me lol. you kept me laughing when we did work together and I appreciated that. we weren't close, but you always made sure to check in and send birthday love and I will always, always remember you as a funny, intelligent, joyful, charismatic, mindful soul. Your bright light will forever be remembered and missed deeply and I am grateful to have experienced your light. Fly high, Jaz...and rest easy.

“Memories are the one place we can visit those we've lost. Since memories are portable, we can take our loved ones with us anywhere and anytime. Thanking God for the memories and laughter we've shared. Your spirit was so genuine and your spirit so free. I will miss your smiling face and your originality. May you Rest in Heavenly Paradise 🙏❤️😊
