“ I am so very sadden by the Loss of Jason. He was a kind,fun and just a very nice person. He was a dear friend to me. This is a great loss but he is resting and at peace. I never will understand death and the pain that comes with it. But we must Trust God's will for his life and our's as well. I will miss him very much and our conversations. RIP. Love you Jason. “ Please accept my deepest condolences for your dear loved one. May the God of all tender mercies and comfort be with you, during your bereavement period. (2Cor 1:3,4) Always remember that God is a refuge and strength for us in all our distresses, especially when we lose a dear loved one.
