

Jerome Eugene Sligh II

May 7, 2018

Jerome Eugene Sligh II

Youngest son of Ethel L. Sligh and Jerome E. Sligh was born on September 6, 1983, at John Randolph Medical Center, Hopewell, VA.

He accepted Christ at an early age at the Andrews Airforce Base Gospel Service Chapel. Jerome affectionately known as Bootsie loved singing in the choir and serving as an Usher.

Jerome graduated from Largo High School in Largo, MD In 2001 and immediately enlisted in the United States Airforce and served until 2008. Afterwards, he was employed by Safeway and Nestle Incorporated; he later became an Entrepreneur, establishing Swift Lifters Moving Company which he thoroughly enjoyed.

Bootsie had a kind and gentle spirit. He was very loving with a big heart, he was mild mannered, and was slow to anger.

He loved being a father! He would go above and beyond for his son spending precious time with him at their favorite spot the National Zoo. On the evening of his death he spent the day at Chuck E Cheese with his son, nieces, nephew and his Mother.

Bootsie loved to cook! His favorite dishes were fried chicken, pork chops, collard greens, lasagna, and chili. He loved animals and his guinea pig "Chip". Above all his greatest love was for his beloved son Cameron.

Bootsie was an avid Redskin fan and he often cheered against his Mother's team, the Dallas Cowboys.

Bootsie will be sorely missed by his loving family and friends.

Bootsie leaves to cherish his beloved memories; his parents Ethel (Antonio) and Jerome Sligh (Chebryll); three siblings, Michael Gregory, Latosha Deamber and Jerita Eugenia Sligh; four nieces, Kaiya, Zaida, Xandra and Sasha, one nephew, Zakaree, they loved him dearly and loved to call him Uncle Bootsie.

He also leaves to mourn his beloved Aunt Effie Mills and his Uncles Issac Oliver and Rev. John T. Bailey; his grandparents, Mary Dickens, and John Oliver; his best friend Kelsey Warren, his brother from another Mother; and, a host of cousins, relatives and friends. He is preceded in death by his grandmother Ruby Bailey Oliver and John H. Dickens.

“ I have not met to many solid n*ggas in the AF that was truly A1. Met this Rome back in 2006. This man GAVE me his car before he got locked up cuz I needed one. I went to see him in base confinement before he came back to the states. I got stationed at Andrews 2009. I seen this man at Lux Lounge in D.C. after not seeing bruh for years. We had a crazy night that night. Last time we spoke in 2016, you was doing good. I should hit you up sooner mane. Now this.....Rest In Peace bruh

Dear Ethel,

Please know that Wayne and I are so sorry for your loss. Neither one of us has gone through anything this devastating... but we pray that with your family friends and loved ones that you, your family, and all of us will get through this. We stand with you in solidarity. We love you Ethel.
