“ Ma Brown,

I had the honor of having her in my life; she loved me as one of your own and passed that same love and affection to my son. She taught me so many life lessons which helped me become the strong woman/mother. I will never forget our long talks, the stories you told, the time we shared, laughter, your encouraging words and you was first person who ever made me real meatballs and spaghetti.

Although my heart is saddened, I know you fought a long fight and overcame so much. It gives me peace to know... You are where you've longed to be, in the arms of our Heavenly Father.

This is not GOODBYE; I will always hold your memory dear to my HEART!

Family, you have my heartfelt condolences and love during this difficult time. I know Ma. Brown was the GLUE that held the family together; remember she instilled her Strength and Love in all of YOU.

*Blessings,
Denise*
