“ Happy 83rd Heavenly Birthday Grandma 🙏. This was a small part of our conversation on your birthday last year. As much as I miss your presence for me it's very comforting to be able to hear your voice when I need to. #mymotherandgrandma 🕊️❤️

“ My mom was the cornerstone of our family loved by all that crossed her path. My mom gave me the greatest gift to me of my life it was the last smile that she gifted to me before her passing' she asked me to bring her some soft shell crabs and that day I made sure that she got them when I took them to her my mom looked up at me with that last smile I'll never forget that look and smile had I known it would be the last smile I would have never left her side I hope she enjoyed them as much as I am visioning that last smile my mom was the most wonderful and most beautiful person in my life how do I go on ? Remembering that smile is the only way I love you mom. Rest in peace.

“ My Beautiful! We miss you so much. I miss your laugh, your voice, your smile. I know I will see you again. Until then I will cherish the memories and always remember everything you taught me. I will miss calling you when I have questions about recipes and asking how you make something. I will miss your fried chicken, baked beans and coleslaw. I'm going to miss you but I will always remember..."a meal just ain't complete without three meats." Love you forever my Beautiful Joanie!!
