“ My friend Big Joe, We've had some good times together, yes my fishing buddy, I have so many memories and one was being out on the water with Big Joe fishing . But one time I will always keep in my heart, that was back in the 70's at piney point we did a lot of fishing there on the shore day and nights, but we decided to rent a little boat and big Joe did not know that I didn't know how to drive a boat and I didn't know he didn't know how to as well.. but we love to fish so the guy we rented the boat from had to show us how to put it into gear and Joe said go ahead E-Man drive the boat and I told him to and I would drive it back so he started driving now there were about 8 to 10 people on the bridge fishing we heard everyone yelling at us saying we took all of there fishing lines! Joe took his knife out and cut everyone's line from the boat motor and “boy” did we take off that day, oh there is more to that day! but now You can rest and put your line in the water in heaven no more suffering no more pain, GOD has you in his arms I have you in my heart. Much love BIG JOE.

Your friend as you always called me (E- Man) aka Eric
