“ My favorite Uncle. He had a key to the house and would visit often. He used to stay in my room and when I was a kid I used to charge him to make up the bed. From that day forward he called me Florence, like on the Jefferson's. He is gone but never forgotten. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. ”

I agree with cousin Tammy, uncle Josh will be remembered as a generous person who's visits were often en unexpected but filled with excitement because he often arrived with gifts in hand and stories to share of life in the "old home place". Our condolences go out to his family and friends!
