“ I remember the first time I met Justin. He said he wanted to get to know more about me and he asked me if I needed a ride home from work. He told me he had a car and none of my friends had cars so I didn't believe him. When he pulled up in this convertible sports car with flames painted on the side I thought to myself now clearly this is not his. I asked him what he does for a living and he told me he was a race car driver, and then he proceeded to spin tires and do donuts in front of my place of business. He lived his life in the fast lane, but I never imagined that we would not celebrate our lifes achievements and timelines together. He gave me the nickname "Boogie". Like Bonnie & Clyde because we would always stick to our guns, except for we were Dice & Boogie in Hyattsville. He gave our daughter the name Tiffany because my name is Chanel and we could both have rich and bougie names. He would always say Ohana to me. Ohana is from the Disney movie Lilo & Stitch. It means family in Hawaiiin. When you are family it means that no one will ever be left behind. I believe that he left us behind and he raced on to para(dice) to prepare a place for all of his family. We will miss him and he will always be remembered as a beautiful person with a beautiful soul who lived his life to the fullest. An angel finally recieved his wings.
