“ Losing a loved one in death can be very difficult to cope with, but I pray you will find comfort in knowing the hope that Jesus gives for all those who are now sleeping in death; the resurrection(Acts 24:15)when the dead will be raised up and restored back to life with the prospect of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed event takes place and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD continue to comfort your family.-Matthew 5:4.

“ *To the Nelson family:
I wanted to share this comforting Scripture with your family. Jesus promised a future resurrection after resurrecting his friend Lazarus; he stated, " do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice & come out."
We can see our loved ones again on a cleansed earth (Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29).
I hope & pray that these words can bring you a measure of comfort until the fulfillment of them.
Love,*

“ To the Nelson family:

I am very sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one is distressing because we naturally want to keep living happily with our family and friends. (Ecclesiastes 3:11) It is comforting to know that God cares about us and knows what it is like to lose a loved one. (1 Peter 5:7) Thankfully, God has promised to change conditions on earth and in humans so that very soon we will be able to enjoy life forever, without ever again having to experience sickness, pain, sadness, or death. (Romans 5:21; Revelation 21:3, 4) He has also provided a sure hope that we will be able to see our loved ones alive and well again. (John 5:28, 29)

May you have comfort and peace during this difficult time.
